

Environmental Peacebuilding in Israel and Palestine

The Kidron Valley/Wadi Nar Project

Water Resources Action Project

WRAP Rainwater Harvesting Barrels and Environmental Education at Tsur Baher Girls School, East Jerusalem.

Remediation of the cultural basin
from the City of David to the Dead Sea, now a polluted stream
running past the 5th Century Mar
Saba Monastery.

Jewish Community Center
August 23, 2015
5:00 to 7:00 pm
5520 Wyoming Blvd NE, Alb
(505) 332-0565

Learn how New Mexicans are supporting exciting people-to-people initiatives

Free to the Public

Presenters:

Liora Meron, Israeli architect and planner. Master Planner for the Kidron/Wadi Al Nar Project
Malcolm Siegel, PhD, MPH, Director of Operations and Education, WRAP, Inc
Students and teachers from Albuquerque Academy, Desert Oasis Teaching Garden.

Supporting Organizations: Water Resources Action Project, Inc., Engineers without Borders, For My Earth Project, Albuquerque Academy, University of New Mexico, The Environmental Peacebuilding Fund, Arava Institute for Environmental Studies.